Damn you chivalry!
Surely you could have given us time to transition to kindness or caring before you died on us all.
Now everyone is confused, trading in their shining armor and noble steeds
for handguns and Half-Tons, drive-thrus and drive-bys.
NEW Ipod or NEW Iraq?
Morals sold separately.
Look what you did, chivalry, went and left us talking monkeys to find a reason to use reason.
